PRESIDENT: Amendment is on page 1102 of the Journal. Senator Labedz.

SENATOR LABEDZ: I move for the adoption of the amendment. No other comments.

PRESIDENT: Senator Chambers, do you wish to speak?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Chairman, members of the Legislature. I'm going to vote for the adoption of the amendment. But I think it's clear to you all that I object to the increase in the fee. So that nobody is laboring under a misapprehension of my position, I'm trying to make the bill as palatable, or let me use the word as decent as possible in dealing with the public. I feel it's going to fly, so I'm trying to make it decent, but it will have to fly without any impetus from me. I'm going to support the amendment, but I will not support readvancing the bill. I will not support its final passage.

PRESIDENT: Chair recognizes Senator Goodrich.

SENATOR GOODRICH: Would Senator Labedz respond to a question please?

PRESIDENT: Senator Labedz.

SENATOR LABEDZ: Yes.
